

“God so loved the world ...” – Join the experience of performing John Stainer’s “The Crucifixion”

We are going to perform John Stainer’s “The Crucifixion” on the Saturday before Palm Sunday at St Thomas Becket Anglican Church, Hamburg. “The Crucifixion” tells the story of Christ’s suffering and death with amazingly beautiful music set for two soloists, choir and organ. Since its first performance in 1887 it has become a much-loved piece of church music of the Victorian period.

I warmly invite you to join the experience! Can you tell of suffering and death with beautiful music?

Please note following dates:

Saturday, 24th March 2012

11:00 to 17:00 hrs - Rehearsal

Sunday, 25th March 2012

12:30 to 17:00 hrs - Rehearsal

Friday, 30th March 2012

19:00 to 21:00 hrs - Dress rehearsal / Generalprobe

Saturday, 31st March 2012

15:45 hrs - Warming up

17:00 hrs - Performance of John Stainer’s “The Crucifixion”

If you would like to be part of the performance please just contact me.

Yotin Tiewtrakul

Choir director at St Thomas Becket, Hamburg

04104/9706-15

cantor@ansverus-haus.de

www.anglican-church-hamburg.de